(5) At its option, Secured Party may discharge taxes, liens or security interests or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed on the Collateral, may pay for insurance and may pay for the maintenance and preservation of the Collateral. Debtor agrees to reimburse Secured Party on demand for any payment made or any expense incurred by Secured Party pursuant to the foregoing authorization, plus interest thereon at the highest lawful rate.

(6) In protecting, exercising or assuring its interests, rights and remedies under this Security Agreement, Secured Party may receive, open and dispose of mail addressed to Debtor and execute, sign, endorse, transfer and deliver negotiable and other instruments for the payment of money, documents of title or other evidences of payment, shipment or storage for any form of Collateral or proceeds on behalf of and in the name of Debtor.

(7) Secured Party may notify the account debtors or obligors of any accounts, chattel paper, negotiable instruments or other evidences of indebtedness remitted by Debtor to Secured Party as proceeds to pay Secured Party directly.

(8) Secured Party may at any time demand, sue for, collect or make any compromise or settlement with reference to the Collateral as Secured Party, in its sole discretion, chooses.

B. Remedies After Default.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and at any time thereafter:

(1) Secured Party may declare all obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable and shall have the rights and remedies of a Secured Party after default under the Uniform Commercial Code of Texas, and in addition thereto and cumulative thereof, the following rights: the right to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the Collateral and the right to take possession of the Collateral, and for that purpose Secured Party may enter upon premises on which the Collateral or any part thereof may be situated and remove the same therefrom. It is agreed and understood that upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, as herein defined, Secured Party may enter upon any premises on which the Collateral or any part thereof may be situated, take possession and remove the same therefrom by any lawful means, either judicial or nonjudicial, including, without limitation, nonjudicial retaking of the Collateral by the Secured Party from the possession of the Debtor and judicial sequestration of the Collateral without notice and without hearing, whether or not Debtor is about to remove Collateral beyond the jurisdiction of the court in which any judicial proceeding could be brought, or conceal or destroy said Collateral. As a part of the consideration for the execution and delivery of this Security Agreement and as an inducement to Secured Party to extend the credit evidenced hereby, Debtor, with full knowledge and understanding of the consequences of its act, hereby expressly waives any and all rights to notice, legal process, and hearing, judicial or nonjudicial, prior to such judicial or nonjudicial retaking. Secured Party may require Debtor to assemble the Collateral and make it available to Secured Party at a place to be designated by Secured Party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Unless the Collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market, Secured Party will send Debtor reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any private sale or other disposition thereof is to be made. The requirement of sending reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed, postage prepaid, to Debtor at the address designated at the beginning of this Security Agreement at least ten (10) days before the time of sale or disposition.

Secured Party may apply the proceeds of any disposition of the Collateral to the satisfaction of the indebtedness of Debtor secured hereby and the expenses of sale in any order or preference which Secured Party in its sole discretion may choose. Reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling or the like shall include Secured Party's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses, and Debtor agrees to pay such expense, plus interest thereon at the highest lawful rate. Debtor shall remain liable for any deficiency.

(2) Secured Party may remedy any default and may waive any default without waiving the default remedied or without waiving any other prior or subsequent default.

(3) The remedies of Secured Party hereunder are cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more of the remedies provided for herein shall not be construed as a waiver of any of the other remedies of Secured Party.

SECTION VII. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS.

(1) The section headings appearing in this instrument have been inserted for convenience only and shall be given no substantive meaning or significance whatever in construing the terms and provision of this instrument.

(2) No failure or delay on the part of the Secured Party in exercising any power or right under this Security Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. No modification or waiver of any provision of this Security Agreement or of the Note nor consent to any departure by the Debtor therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice to or demand on the Debtor in any case shall entitle the Debtor to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(3) "Secured Party" and "Debtor" as used in this instrument, shall include the successors, representatives, receivers, trustees and assigns of those parties. Terms not defined in this instrument which are defined in the Uniform Commercial Code are used with the meanings as therein defined. All notices and other communications required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be deemed to have been effectively given if given in writing and sent by United States mail, postage prepaid as a registered or certified item, to Debtor at the address shown at the beginning hereof, or such other address as Debtor shall have supplied to Secured Party in writing.

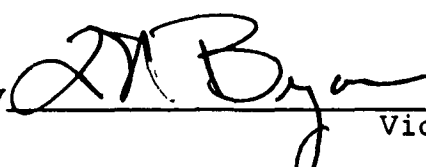

(4) Except with the prior written consent of the Secured Party, none of the Collateral shall be released herefrom until all of the indebtedness secured hereby shall have been fully paid and performed. .

(5) The parties hereto agree that this Security Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced under the laws of the State of Texas, except as Federal law shall apply.
